WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.

A delegation of gentlemen, from Florida is now here to get the dirt off the pavement in front of the President's door. They are headed by C. G. Memminger, Secretary of State; G. S. Cave, Adjutant-General; W. W. Saunders. They say a better spirit will prevail in the Legislature, and the Governor, who is now in Washington, will be able to get along with it. They say that Governor Reed has not yet received the bonds, and is not willing to approve them. They have had their trouble with Governor Reed, a Union man from Vermont. Senator Wilson called with them at the President and Secretary of War Rawlins' request, and they presented their case to the President. Governor Reed was removed by the advice of the Administration, and the action is in pursuance of the policy of the Administration, and the desire to preserving law and order. It is understood that Governor Reed will not be restored to the control of the people in the Western part of the country on the question of being out of the Union. The Senate will not do things very differently, and then there will be a new election. The President said a very brief time would be long to wait.

THE SUPREME JUDICIARY.

At the request of Postmaster Asher, of Boston, Senator Wilson called upon the President to-day, in relation to the appointment of Judge Grier, of the Supreme Court. Judge Grier has been very much afflicted with rheumatism, and has found it impossible to attend to his duties for many months. The President said that he would be glad to have Judge Grier resign, and that he would appoint Edwin M. Stanton to the vacancy. Senator Wilson said that he presumed that Judge Grier would resign, but that he would not do so until he knew that Stanton would be appointed. The President said that he would appoint Stanton, and that he would not appoint any one else. Senator Wilson said that he would inform Judge Grier of the President's intention at once.

THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

The Judiciary Committee of the Senate met to-day, and had a long session. The President was present, and discussed the Supreme Court question with the committee. Senator Wilson called upon the President, and informed him
